A Reflection of . . .

PMHS
A school where students and teachers
reflect the spirit of the
"Fighting Blues".

As we pause to reflect at the end of this century, the success of Parry McCluer High School is an excellent starting point.

On the current Parry McCluer High School site a two-room building was erected around 1890. Overcrowding brought about the construction of a new brick building, completed in 1924 and named for John Parry McCluer who had held many positions with the school system since 1890.

"The Wall" was constructed in 1939.

Matt Huch takes a break from computer classwork.

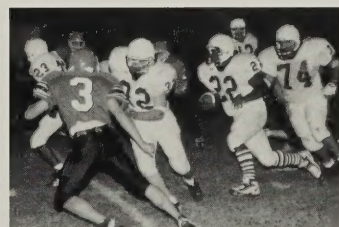

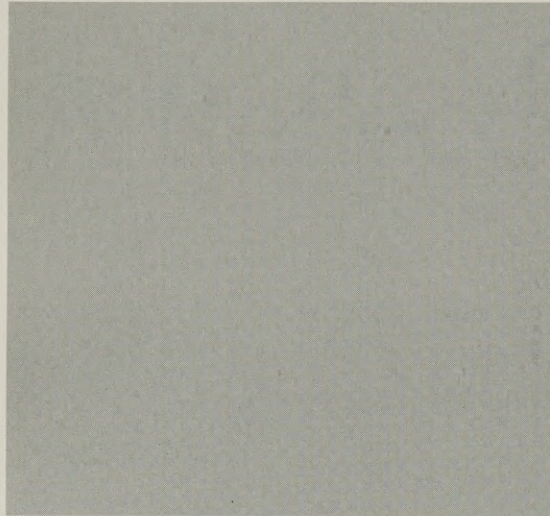

1998-99 . . .

Students enjoyed success in many sports .

The Vocational Program
at Parry McCluer High School
trains many students to enter the workforce immediately after graduation.

Many students enroll in vocational classes to learn skills
that they can use in later life.

Band trips provided fun and the opportunity to display the "Fighting Blues Band".

Career Day, sponsored by the Guidance Department, featured PMHS graduate Mike Groot who is a practicing attorney in Buena Vista.

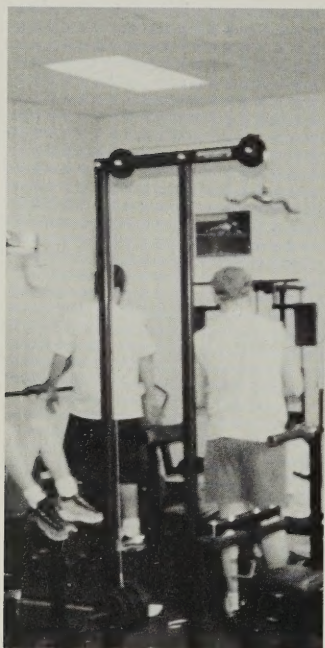

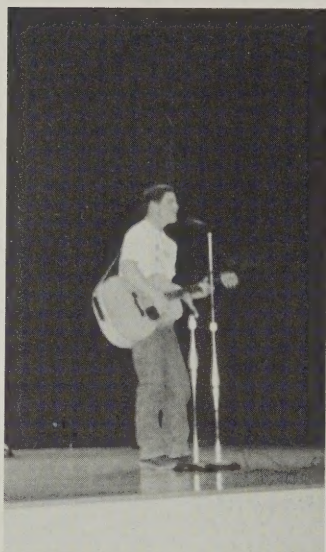

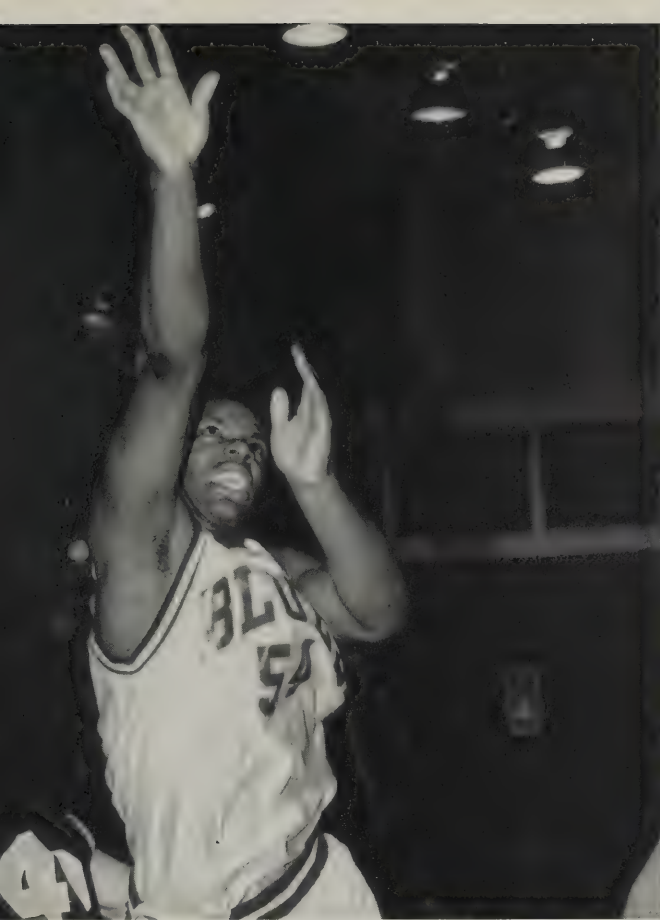

English 10 students demonstrated some unusual talents while fulfilling one of the requirements of the Standards of Learning.

SCA President, Matt Huch, initiated the television delivery of daily announcements. Jane Cline and other staff members assisted with this project.

Students were found involved in many activities during the course of the school year.

Visiting area elementary schools during the holidays was only one activity of the SCA.

Betty Teague retired as a teacher at PMHS after devoting 32 years to the students, school and community.

Thanks for the memories.

Homecoming 1998

"An Evening of Elegance"

Homecoming 1998 began like always. The usual week of school which consisted of spirit week. Then on Friday there was a pep rally promoting cheering and excitement. The senior class won the pep stick for the first time ever. The football game that Friday night turned out to be a winning success against James River. Then came Saturday evening, students began the traditionally busy afternoon, awaiting the dance.

Homecoming 1998 brought wonderful smiles to the guys and girls. The dance floor was turned into a whirl. The night ended too soon, but the memories would last forever including "An Evening of Elegance."

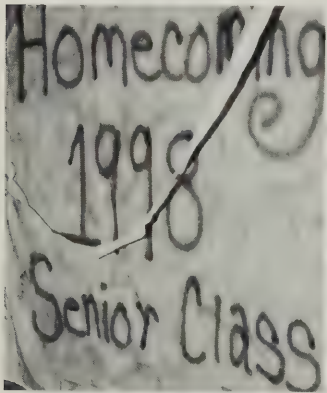

Tasha Lilly was crowned as the 1998 Homecoming Queen.

Jennifer and Annie take a moment to catch up on all of the gossip.

Look at this picture of happiness. Aren't they such a cute couple, a picture of love.

One of the many decorations used by the Seniors to beautify their hallway during Spirit Week.

Erika and Micheal take a break from the dance floor to share some laughter.

Three of the Varsity Cheerleaders show their spirit week, on pajama day.

Everyone appears to be tired as the work is almost finished.

Teddy Snyder adds his artistic touch.

Mr. Roberts converses with senior, Erika Robinette and her date as Rafael gets last minute instructions from his host family, the Lynns.

Prom Queen Chy Clark and Prom King Jason Slagle added a touch of elegance to the evening.

Varisty Cheerleading

In May 1998 the 1998-1999 varsity cheerleading squad was formed consisting of Erika Robinette, Mandy Madison, Tasha Lilly, Kelley Talley, Missy Garrett, Whitney Bice, Kirkland Wohlrab, and Kasey Williams. The cheerleaders practiced all summer preparing for the sport seasons. In addition to practicing, football program ads were sold. Our first football game against Radford was a success on the sidelines. During the year we organized pep rallies and distributed "goodies" to the teams.

Then came the preparations for the week of homecoming. After celebrating the victory of the Homecoming game against James River, the cheerleaders decorated until the wee hours of the morning to present "An Evening of Elegance" to the students at P.M.H.S.

The season ended with cheering the boys basketball team to the second round of regions. Mrs. Garrett made it a great year for aa. The long road trips, practice, and meals at Cracker Barrel made the 1998-1999 cheerleading season fulfilled.

A DAY IS NOT COMPLETE WITHOUT A TRIP TO THE SCHOOL CAFETERIA.

Andrews Air Force Base

Mr. Loy's Government and World History classes traveled to Andrews Air Force Base in late May. Students got to hang out in the Hanger and view F-16 jets. Mr. Alerding shared some of his flight stories with the students. The students also toured a cargo carrier. After the planes, students were taken "behind the scenes" of the Air Force to see just how the force operates. Our eager student, Dawn Tetzloff was the guinea pig for all of the Air Force equipment. It was a great trip, the students all felt like "Top Guns" for a day.

G.I. Dawn.

Jason, Dawn, Sherita, Kasey, Emily, Renee, Matt, and Derrick pose during the early morning visit to Andrews Air Force Base.

A few memories of a day
spent with friends.

Jason will still be breaking Kasey's heart
ten years from now.

Rafael poses as though he were an "accidental tourist."

"... See no evil, hear no evil, speak no evil. . ."

Yeah, right!

The girls pose with an eager? soldier.

EURO TRAVELERS 1999

An adventurous group of students boarded a Lufthansa airplane for Frankfurt, Germany on April 1, 1999. Accompanied by Frau Yancey, the group toured several major cities and enjoyed the culture of Germany.

The group poses outside Parry McCluer High School before they embarked on the trip.

Kirkland, Jennifer and Whitney wave goodbye to family and friends before boarding the plane at Dulles Airport.

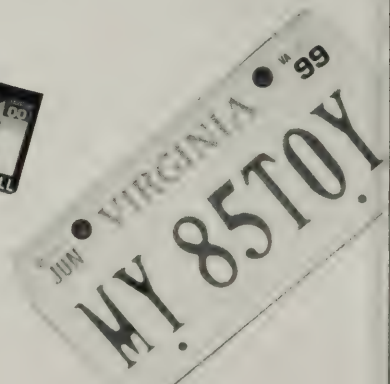

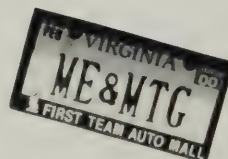

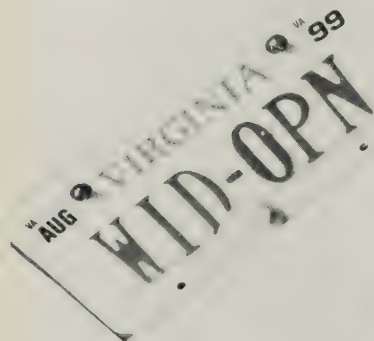

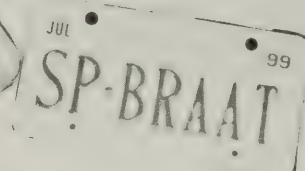

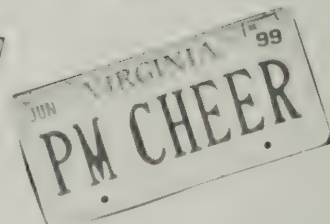

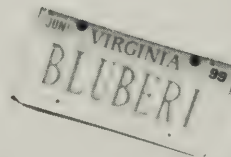

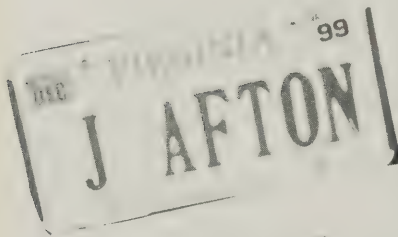

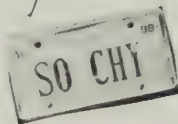

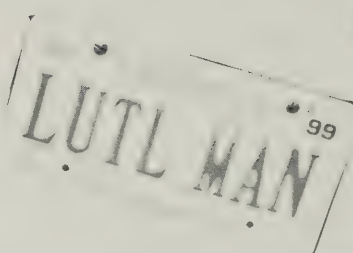

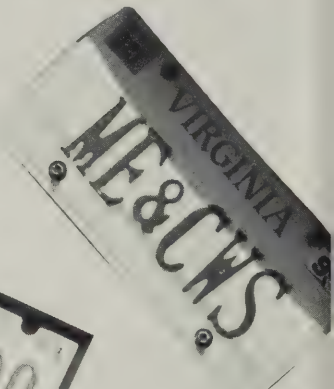

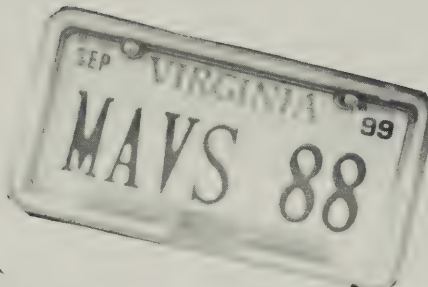

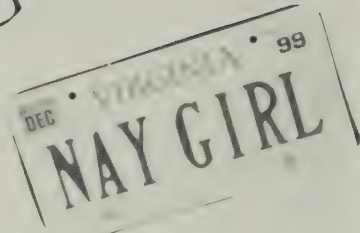

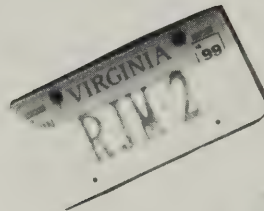

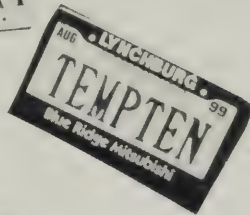

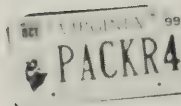

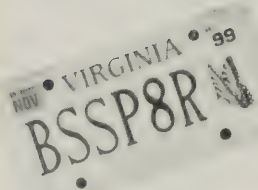

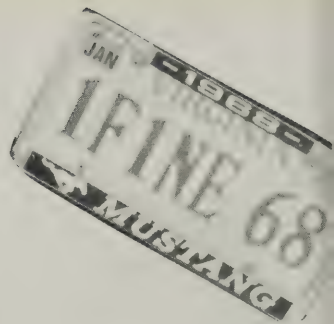

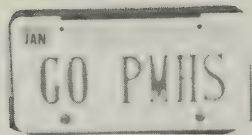

EASTER IN LUCERNE

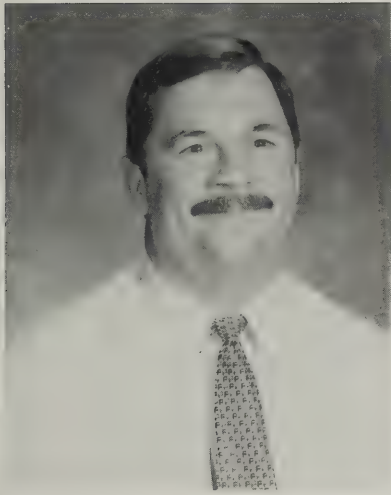

Josh , Jennifer, Kirkland, Maggie
and Stefanie discuss day's events.

Annie, Whitney, Kirkland and Maggie

The older child of four . The time has come to graduate and you are going to soar. Just reach for the stars, they are shining for you, we know you will succeed in whatever you do.

We are so proud of the work you have done, and now your college life has begun. It's time now to think what your future will be. Don't hurry the process because time is the key.

The course that you choose may be bumpy at times, but trust in the Lord, he'll give you a sign. Just listen to Him in the quiet of the night, and you will know in your heart it will be right.

We love you,

Dear Chy,

We all are so proud of you. You were a beautiful blonde haired blue eyed baby that grew into a beautiful young lady.

We have had such fun watching you get ready for all the homecomings and proms and coming to all your ballgames and seeing what a well rounded, spirited young lady. You've become not only being one great athlete (way to go "C"), but a loving, caring daughter, granddaughter, sister, and niece.

We all love you so much!

Erika and Tamara Friends Forever

A Friend Is...

... someone with whom you can really be yourself; one who appreciates the good in you and overlooks the rest. With a friend you can share a laugh, a secret, a success or disappointment, and a complete assortment of problems, large and small. A friend is someone who understands silence as well as words... one who lifts you up and never lets you down. A friend is someone who makes you feel it's a pretty nice old world after all.

Friends Forever

Tasha and Missy

When we first met it was clear to see that the best of friends we would always be. Through the good times and the bad, the happy & sad we stuck together like no others ever had. As we traveled through our school years, very seldom anyone would see you without me. We have so many memories that we will never forget, and leaving each other for college, we will probably regret. Although we have to go away and be miles and miles apart, you can be sure you will never leave my heart.

Tasha,
Thanks for being
such a great friend! I'm gonna
miss ya!
Love,
Missy

Missy,
You are a wonderful friend. I
will miss you
tremendously.
Love always,
Tasha
